Public Meeting re: Lake Level Order & Special Assessment District

- Luce County and Mackinac County are in the process of updating the lake level order and establishing a lake level special assessment district for Big Manistique Lake
 - The Luce and Mackinac County Boards of Commissioners appointed the Big Manistique Lake Authority as the delegated authority to maintain the legal level of Big Manistique Lake, including establishing a special assessment district
 - The Big Manistique Lake Authority includes representatives from Luce County, Mackinac County, Portage Township, Lakefield Township, and property owner members
- Updates to the lake level order will take place in Circuit Court to ensure the legally established level(s) in the order is consistent with the current operation of the lake level control structure and state law
- A special assessment district will provide a consistent funding mechanism to help ensure Big Manistique Lake can be maintained at its legally established level
 - Boundaries of the proposed special assessment district will include properties with private legal access to the lake (lakefront, deeded, platted, etc.)
 - Your property is currently under consideration for inclusion in the special assessment district
- For more information and to view the tentative special assessment district map, visit <https://www.manistiquelakelevel.net/> or scan the QR code
