

On August 10, 2009 the Mackinac County Jail was awarded accreditation by the American Correctional Association for attainment of excellence in the operation of the Core Jail Standards at the 139th Congress of Corrections in Nashville, Tennessee.

Mackinac County jail is the first jail in the nation to be recognized with this award. This milestone in the field of corrections could not have been reached without the hard work of the dedicated professional staff of the Mackinac County Jail.

This accreditation is a testament of the following individuals' dedication to the profession of corrections and to the citizens of Mackinac County.
